Old Business:

Stacy has the new AA schedules printed and will distribute them asap.

The Zoom contract was renewed by Laura W personal funds. Intergroup will now meet quarterly in person at the Vineyard House. First quarterly meeting in person or via zoom scheduled for April 19th.

New Business:

Unity Breakfast is scheduled for Sunday, April 30 at 10:30. The event will be catered and held at the Chilmark Community Center. Event location has been secured for that date. Thank you Marie. Ticket price was decided at $25 for 100 people. A unity breakfast sub committee was formed with Stacy as chair with Annie, Kathy P, Robert and Laura. Committee will talk to the caterer about keeping a reasonable budget and finding out what materials are on hand and available at the CCC.

Rotating AA group commitments for AA's with at least 90 days from MV to Gosnold in Falmouth are available for two nights on the 4th Monday and the 1st Sunday of each month from 7pm to 8:30pm. It would require leaving on the 6pm boat and returning on the last boat. A motion was passed that intergroup would cover the cost of 6-7 AA passengers on the boat and a taxi/uber to and from the steamship for up to $150 per night.

Eleven AA groups were represented this evening. Thank You!

Meeting adjourned

Respectfully Submitted,
Laura W Secretary

Addendum:

Sub Committee notes:

Our caterer Johnny was willing to work with the group and came down in price to $2,500. With Tickets and rental cost, we are looking at a budget of $3,000 plus dollars for approval at our next intergroup meeting.
