Old Business:

New AA meeting schedules are at the printers. The new schedules will include young persons meeting & intergroup now meeting in person.

Kathy D, representing the Sunday Beach meeting, reported the group will keep its traditional format for upcoming meeting/bbq

An AA coin inventory was finished and all coins are available 1-50. There are a couple of coins available for each year and month

Dave S did secure a parking permit in Falmouth and the extra car insurance for our Gosnold Commitment. The newly formed young people's meeting will be participating at an upcoming commitment in Falmouth.

New Business

It was suggested to restart two jail meetings. (Only up to 5-6 men per meeting & unadvertised stipulated by the officer in charge) During our discussion it was suggested to start with one men's meeting until enough men could make the commitment. The meeting will not be advertised because of the required background check. Two motions passed that intergroup will fund any necessary literature purchased and commit to one unadvertised meeting per week.

Sunday Meeting/BBQ was discussed & Mac will call business across the street as a courtesy to find out if Sunday August 13 (aa meeting at 10 followed would conflict with any events planned on their side as parking is limited. Intergroup members will seek volunteers in their groups so intergroup alone does not carry the burden. An event committee meeting is possible before our next intergroup meeting. Stacy or I will text/email intergroup & representatives when the date is nailed down.

Meeting adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,
Laura W Secretary

*Next meeting Wed, July 19, 2023 at the Vineyard House in the Pat Gregory Conference Room located upstairs.
