Special zoom meeting of Intergroup brought to order by the Chairman at 6pm to discuss the unity breakfast.

Chilmark Community Center presented by Stacy W and discussed.
$1,500 private party rental. Marie L, selectman, suggested going to a town meeting to get the rental fee waived.
Refundable $500 deposit, can cancel up to a week before.
Cooking is not on site.

Harbor View presented by Steph P and discussed.
It was cost prohibitive.

Camp Jabberwocky was presented by Steph P and discussed.
$250 fee.
Full commercial kitchen, allowing food to be prepared on site.
Johnny P can provide and prepare food for $2,000.
Seating for 100 people comfortably with additional space such as outdoor areas, fire pit areas for overflow.
Parking is limited and suggestions of a shuttle and carpooling to be further discussed.
Sunday, May 5 is available.
Plates and utensils will be paper and plastic.
A total budget of $3,000, which would allow for a $15 ticket price, was proposed.

After discussion a motion to host the unity breakfast at Camp Jabberwocky on Sunday May 5 with the details listed above was made, seconded, and unanimously approved by the officers and group representatives in attendance.

Stacy W offered to prepare the flyer for the event.

At our meeting on Wednesday March 20 we will be discussing the options for parking, the need for service committees for setup, parking, and cleanup.

Meeting adjourned at 6:40pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Heather Y S Secretary
