Old Business

Stacy updated on the website and schedule: ready to go.

Dave brought us up to date on the ongoing commitments to Gosnold and the jail. Gosnold is going well, we can now bring people with less than 90 days but they will not be able to share. The last boat was cancelled on the night of one of the commitments: the commitment left early to get the 8:30 boat. We will discuss what to do in these situations. Gosnold has run out of books, Ben P may be able to supply books, we will discuss this further next meeting. The jail commitment has 3 spaces available, the requirement is 90 days clean and sober and a background check.

Unity breakfast:

Johnny and the insurance are paid, there is still a cleaning fee of $200 outstanding. Suzanne is passing everything on to Stacy (rental agreement, paperwork, etc)

There will be 10 tickets reserved at the door.

Karen will ask about lending a big book.

David S went over the breakfast format.

The motion was made, seconded, and passed to buy two airpots.

Ongoing reminder to review Intergroup bylaws.

New Business

Kristen B asked about signing up for Zelle or another form of online payments. We are not able to.

Two people are interested in being the GSR representative.

Meeting adjourned at 6:55pm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Heather Y S Secretary
